Eastern Washington Advisory Council Meets May 23

Spokane, Wash. – The Eastern Washington Resource Advisory Council (RAC) will hold a meeting on May 23, 2012. The meeting will be held in the Hardin Room of the ATEC Building at Big Bend Community College, 7662 N.E. Chanute St, Moses Lake, Washington, 98837.

The meeting will start at 10:00 a.m. and end at 4:00 p.m. The meeting will be open to the public and there will be an opportunity for public comments at 10:00 a.m. Discussion will focus on the Eastern Washington and San Juan Resource Management Plan and the Forest Plan Revision for the Colville National Forest.

The Eastern Washington RAC is comprised of 15 members from a variety of backgrounds who are appointed by the Secretary of the Interior. The Eastern Washington RAC provides advice to the Bureau of Land Management Spokane District Manager and the Colville National Forest Supervisor regarding management of federal public land in eastern Washington.

For additional information about the Eastern Washington RAC or the upcoming meeting, contact the Spokane BLM District Office, 1103 N. Fancher Rd, Spokane Valley, WA 99212 or call (509) 536-1200, or visit the RAC website at: http://www.blm.gov/or/rac/ewrac.php.

About the BLM: The BLM manages 245 million acres of public land known as the National System of Public Lands. The lands are primarily located in 12 Western states, including 75 million acres in Alaska. With a budget of about $1 billion, the bureau also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation. The BLM's multiple-use mission is to sustain the health and productivity of the public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations.
