Visual Resource Management Classes
Alternative D

Map 2-5

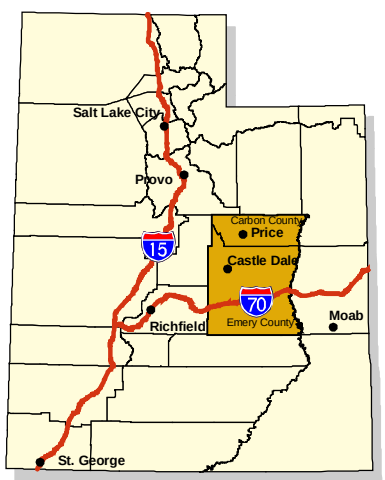
Class 1 - To preserve the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be low and not attract attention.
630,631 Acres

Class 2 - To retain the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be low.
301,042 Acres

Class 3 - To partially retain the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be moderate.
1,259,890 Acres

Class 4 - To provide for management activities which require major modification of the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape can be high.
298,706 Acres



Source: BLM Price Field Office