Route Selection Criteria – Areas of Avoidance

Wilderness Areas are designated by Congress and are managed for a variety of purposes including the protection of wildlife habitat. Motorized vehicle traffic is prohibited in these areas.

Photo Credit www.nevadafarmland.com

The Silver State Trail must avoid private property to prevent infringing on landowner privacy.

The Swamp Cedar Area of Environmental Concern is a natural area designated not only for rare plants, but it is also an important historical site.