From: Director, National Applied Resource Sciences Center
Subject: Using BLM's Intranet for WO Directives

Beginning February 1, 1997, WO directives (IMs, IBs, manuals, and handbooks) will no longer be sent via GroupWise. Washington Office directives will be posted on the WO Intranet site at:

<http://web.blm.gov/internal/wo-500/dir-hpg.html>

The Denver Center Support Services Group (BC-650) will access this site daily and forward all IMs and IBs, via GroupWise, to RS-100 for dissemination to appropriate NARSC personnel.

RS-100 will monitor and track any suspense items requiring response from the National Applied Resource Sciences Center.

Employees are encouraged to use the Intranet site to retrieve previously issued IMs, IBs, manuals, and handbooks. All fiscal year 1997 directives are present as are most fiscal year 1996 directives. Because the Intranet site can be accessed at any time, employees need not make paper copies. Additionally, the BLM Library retains paper copies for employees' use if needed.

Employees should use the bookmark feature of Netscape or the hotlist feature of Mosaic to mark this page. These features will eliminate having to enter the address each time.
