

Fire Adapted Landscapes

How Do We Get There?

A conference on restoring and maintaining fire adapted landscapes in the Pacific Northwest.

This Conference is oriented to the practitioner with the task of reintroducing fire into the forests and rangelands of the Pacific Northwest. It will present practical information and projects relevant to both west side and east side forests and to range lands. The target audience includes fuels managers, silviculture specialists, range specialists, wildlife biologists, botanists, soils scientists, and others interested in reintroduction of fire to the landscape.

November 5-7, 2002 at the Monarch Hotel, Clackamas County, OR.
