

Course Title	Diversity: Safeguarding Interior's Legacy (Interactive Television Broadcast)
Date and Time	Thursday, April 19, 2001, from 1:00-4:00 p.m. ET
Course Number	SUP 6D70
Course Description	This course will cover the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ What is diversity within the Department of the Interior? ■ Why is diversity a business necessity to our mission? ■ How can we more effectively utilize our diverse workforce? ■ How can we reach out to our diverse constituents? This course has been developed by the Interagency Diversity Training Workgroup representing each of the bureaus and the Secretary's Office within the Department of the Interior. During the broadcast, participants will have an opportunity to interact with the facilitators. Closed-captioning will be available for analog downlinks.
Target Audience	This course is designed for all supervisors and managers within DOI, and all supervisors and managers are encouraged to attend. The course meets the content requirement for mandatory diversity training.
Satellite Coordinates	The Bureau of Land Management's National Training Center will "tumaround" NCTC's digital signal so that downlink sites with steerable analog dishes may participate. Please check their web site at http://www.ntc.blm.gov/coming.html for satellite coordinates.
Cost	There is no tuition for this course.
Site Registration	A site coordinator must register by going to distancelearning.fws.gov/ , then clicking on " Schedule of Events ," " Diversity: Safeguarding Interior's Legacy ," " I am a site coordinator and would like to register my site. " Site registration ensures that the downlink site has been reserved for the event.
Individual Registration	Before registering as a participant, you should ensure that the site where you will be participating has registered (see Site Registration above). A list of downlink classrooms and points of contact located throughout the country is available at distancelearning.fws.gov/ , click on " Location of Distance Learning Classrooms ." To register as a participant, go to distancelearning.fws.gov/ and click on " Diversity: Safeguarding Interior's Legacy ," " I am an individual who would like to register for the course. "
Content Questions?	Please contact Lisa Deener (304-876-7480, Lisa_Deener@fws.gov) or Peggy Sandretzky (304-876-7467, Peggy_Sandretzky@nps.gov).
NCTC Distance Learning Coordinators	Dick Georgen (304-876-7474, Dick_Georgen@fws.gov) Donna Lam (304-876-7444, Donna_Lam@fws.gov)