Title 18 U.S.C. Section 1001, makes it a crime for any person knowingly and willfully to make to any department or agency of the United States any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements or representations as to any matter within its jurisdiction.

INSTRUCTIONS TO PUBLISHER

This notice must be published for five consecutive weeks preceding the date set for the final proof. It is required of a daily paper that the publication be made in the Wednesday issue for five consecutive weeks; if weekly, in five consecutive issues; and if semiweekly, in either issue for five consecutive weeks. The first publication must be completed at least 30 days prior to the date set for final proof.

A report should be submitted as soon as the arrangements for publication are made. Transmit a clipping of the notice as published with a statement of the period for which the publication is to run. The Bureau of Land Management is not responsible for the cost of publication. The statement of publication, on the front of this form, should be forwarded to this office immediately upon completion of the publication.

If the arrangements necessary to this publication are not made in time to meet the above requirements do not publish, and advise this Office.

The published notice must strictly and accurately follow the notice as prepared for publication as an incorrect publication may prevent the acceptance of the final proof.
