John Day/Snake Resource Advisory Council Meeting Scheduled

A business meeting of the John Day/Snake Resource Advisory Council (RAC) will be held on Tuesday, April 3, at the Oxford Inn & Suites, 2400 SW Court Place in Pendleton. The meeting will begin at 9:00 am and end at approximately 3:30 pm. This federally chartered citizens' group advises Bureau of Land Management and Forest Service managers on issues affecting the John Day River Basin and a portion of the lower Snake River Basin.

The agenda includes discussions concerning the Oregon/Washington Bureau of Land Management Travel Management Strategy, the John Day Basin Resource Management Plan, the Blue Mountain Forest Plan Revision and several other topics of interest.

Members of the public are welcome to attend RAC meetings as observers. An opportunity for public comment to the Council is scheduled for 1:00 p.m. Depending on the number of people wishing to comment and the amount of time available, comments may be limited in order to fulfill the meeting objectives. The public is encouraged to submit written comments to the Council as well.

Individuals who plan to attend and need special assistance, such as sign language interpretation or other reasonable accommodations, should contact the Prineville BLM.

For further information contact Virginia Gibbons at (541) 416-6647, Prineville Bureau of Land Management, 3050 NE Third Street, Prineville, OR 97754.
