BLM Now Accepting Reservations for select campsites at Susan Creek Campground

Roseburg, OR. – The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Roseburg District will be accepting campsite reservations for select campsites at Susan Creek Campground effective immediately. Campsites at the Susan Creek campgrounds can be reserved by visiting www.recreation.gov or by calling 1-877-444-6777.

“Reservations can be made today for camping in select sites between May 15th through September 15th, 2015,” said Erik Taylor, Supervisory Outdoor Recreation Planner for the Roseburg BLM. “Before and after those dates, campsites remain on a first-come, first-serve basis. Susan Creek opens this Friday, April 17th.

Susan Creek campsites #19 - #31 will be available for reservations for up to 14 days. The fee for a night’s stay will remain at $14.00. However, a $9.00 transaction fee will be added if the reservation is made via the internet and a $10.00 transaction fee added if made over the phone.

An earlier press release stated that reservations would be available for select sites at Tye Campground. However due to unforeseen circumstances, reserving sites will not be available at Tye. Reservations already made will be honored.

For questions relating to the reservation of campsites, please contact Phil Zumstein at 541-464-3353

The BLM manages more than 245 million acres of public land, the most of any Federal agency. This land, known as the National System of Public Lands, is primarily located in 12 Western states, including Alaska. The BLM also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation. The BLM’s mission is to manage and conserve the public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations under our mandate of multiple-use and sustained yield. In Fiscal Year 2014, the BLM generated $5.2 billion in receipts from public lands.
