BLM Seeking Caretaker for North Bank Ranch

Roseburg, OR. – The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Roseburg District is seeking a volunteer to live at the North Bank Habitat Management Area, and serve as Caretaker for the grounds and facilities.

The volunteer would be required to provide their own travel trailer or motor home. A covered site with full hook-ups is available.

The duties for the volunteer position would include opening and closing the public entry gate, cleaning and light maintenance at the administrative site, and mowing at recreation areas, along roads, and in forage plots for deer. The amount of work would vary seasonally from less than 5 hours per week during the winter to up to 20 hours a week in the spring when grass growth is at its greatest.

The volunteer would need to be familiar with hand tools and farm equipment, willing to work with BLM employees and interact with the public.

The initial volunteer term would be through the summer season, with the option to extend through the remaining part of the year.

The BLM manages more than 245 million acres of public land, the most of any Federal agency. This land, known as the National System of Public Lands, is primarily located in 12 Western states, including Alaska. The BLM also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation. The BLM's mission is to manage and conserve the public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations under our mandate of multiple-use and sustained yield. In Fiscal Year 2014, the BLM generated $5.2 billion in receipts from public lands.
