BLM Monument Advisory Committee to Hold First Meeting

Spokane, Wash. – The Bureau of Land Management’s (BLM) San Juan Islands National Monument Advisory Committee (MAC) will hold its first meeting on Wednesday and Thursday, October 29 - 30, 2014, from 10:15 a.m. - 3:45 p.m. both days, at the San Juan Island Grange, 152 N 1st Street in Friday Harbor. The meeting is open to the public.

The first day of the meeting will be devoted to new member orientation and an introduction to the resource management plan process. The second day of the meeting will include establishing MAC goals and beginning a collaborative project on public outreach.

On the second day at 2:45 p.m., members of the public will have the opportunity to make comments to the MAC during a one-hour public comment period. Persons wishing to make comments should register in person with the BLM by 2 p.m. on October 30, 2014, at the meeting location. Depending on the number of persons wishing to comment, the length of comments may be limited. The public may send written comments to the MAC at San Juan Islands National Monument, Attn. MAC, P.O. Box 3, 37 Washburn Ave., Lopez Island, Washington 98261.

The 12-member San Juan Islands MAC was chartered to provide information and advice regarding the development of the San Juan Islands National Monument’s resource management plan. Members represent an array of stakeholder interests in the land and resources from within the local area and statewide.

- BLM -

The BLM manages more than 245 million acres of public land, the most of any Federal agency. This land, known as the National System of Public Lands, is primarily located in 12 Western states, including Alaska. The BLM also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation. The BLM’s mission is to manage and conserve the public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations under our mandate of multiple-use and sustained yield. In Fiscal Year 2013, the BLM generated $4.7 billion in receipts from public lands.
