Recreation Advisory Committee Meeting Postponed

PORTLAND – A regional recreation advisory committee meeting scheduled for Tuesday, April 29, has been postponed. A new meeting date has not been set.

The meeting was postponed because of an error in announcing the meeting in the Federal Register, as required by law. The meeting had been set for Tuesday at the Red Lion Hotel, 1021 N.E. Grand Ave., Portland, Ore.

The Pacific Northwest Recreation Resource Advisory Committee makes recommendations on new recreation fee proposals or changes to fees on public lands managed by the U.S. Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management in Oregon and Washington. The volunteer committee members represent a wide range of interest groups from both states.

The Forest Service and BLM regret any inconvenience. A new meeting date and time will be announced soon.
