

1084

RECEIVED

NOV 19 2007

11/12/07

DEAR MR. SHEPARD,

I don't pretend to know the details of your "WOPR" exercise in logging, but I do know that much of western Oregon's remaining forest is no-road, no-log reserves from the Northwest Forest Plan.

Why can't the BLM stop groveling to timber interests? Your mandate should be care of a scarce and socially valuable resource... NOT PLANNING TREE PLANTATIONS!

Cordially,
Catherine Wallace