

After reviewing the WOPR , listening to the town hall meeting on a local radio station, and reading the editorials in the Register Guard, I must concur with the assessment made in one of those articles -- "It's bad for spotted owls, bad for rivers and bad for fish." In addition, I would add that it's bad for forests and for Oregon. Scrap the plan.

1313

RECEIVED

DEC 11 2007

* NOTE: WAS UNABLE TO UPLOAD MY COMMENTS
VIA WEBSITE.

THANKS .