Revising the BLM's Resource Management Plans in Western Oregon

I have been riding up at John's Peak since I was a kid and was very disappointed to hear of all these changes, possibly about to take place. I am not a parking lot racer, or someone who litters the area and none of the guys and girls I ride with are. It's a good time out in the woods, cruising trails that are maintained and kept in good condition thanks to the MRA. I do not believe that we are disturbing wildlife, in fact most the deer you see up there, just watch you go by, just like the pretty much "pet" deer you see in J'ville. Funny how the OHV's are destroy by the land and disturbing wildlife but the rock quarries and trucks, and the logging equipment and people building homes and, not trails, actual roads, don't do a darn thing to the environment. People move to the Pacific Northwest just for the outdoors and your trying to turn the place into something else. I recently started riding up at Anderson
