Oregon - specifically because of the old Forest stands. I'm a 44 year old person that has thought about it since I read Bill Pret's book, Meryle the High Flying Squirrel. It is far more valuable to keep the stands and trees (if isolated) as carbon holders, recreational profits, and

Dear BLM,

I am appealing to you at a higher level than outdated 1937 laws/regulations, higher than a 2005 boom lumber sale. I am asking you to follow the action on the WOPR that requires no action! No Regeneration or should I say clearcut of old growth Forests and trees.

I think there are now many
