

Cavitt Creek Falls Recreation Site

Know Before You Go

This special site boasts a number of amenities for weary travelers, campers, and day users alike, including a campground, picnic area, water, and restroom facilities. There is a campground host on site. Fishing is closed on Cavitt Creek by the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife.

Disabled access within the Cavitt Creek Falls Recreation Site has been developed in the parking areas, campsites, restrooms, and to all water taps. Due to steep terrain, disabled access to Cavitt Creek is not available.

Camping Information

There are 10 individual campsites, available on a first-come, first-served basis. For use of this fee site, please contact the Roseburg Bureau of Land Management District Office for current rates and availability. Pets are allowed in the campground, but must be kept on a leash. Each campsite includes vehicle parking, a picnic table, and plenty of beautiful trees.

A day-use area is available for anyone wanting to visit the area but not spend the night. There is no fee. Pets are not allowed in the day-use area.

The Cavitt Creek Falls Recreation Site opens in mid-May and closes in mid-October. For specific dates or other information about Bureau of Land Management recreation sites, contact the Roseburg District BLM office.
