Subject Re: Union Pacific rail line

Hi Carlos,

I've checked with our BLM Yuma office. Apparently the Union Pacific did come into the BLM office to check on land status. However, BLM has not received any applications from them for this project. My understanding is that they haven't decided on a route and it's too preliminary to know if a BLM right-of-way will be involved.

Subject Union Pacific rail line

Hi Joanie, thanks for the briefing today. I forgot to mention that I was down in Yuma on Friday for a Farm Bureau meeting regarding a proposed Union Pacific rail line. Supposedly, this may go through BLM land. Has your office heard anything on this?

Thanks!
