

BLM Resource Advisory Councils

Partners Across The West

Charlie Kerr

Northwest RAC Member

Charlie represents category 2, environmental interests. Charlie lives in Grand Junction and was appointed to his second term as a NW RAC member in 2006.

He is a retired teacher whose 33-year teaching career included 27 years in western Colorado schools. He is a founding member of the Mesa County Chapter of Western Colorado Congress. Charlie has served as Chairman of the Mesa County Air Quality Planning Committee and President of Western Colorado Congress.

For 37 years he has been actively exploring western Colorado's backcountry.