NOTE TO MAP USERS

The surface and minerals management status overlays are published as general information and management tools. Some of the information overlaid on this map may be subject to change. No warranty is made by the BLM for use of the map for purposes not intended by BLM. The official land records in the respective offices of the Bureau of Land Management or other responsible Federal agencies should be checked for up-to-date status on any specific tract of land. Inquiries in the BLM map should be reported to the respective Bureau of Land Management offices from which the maps were obtained.

PUBLIC ACCESS

Roads crossing public lands may be traveled by the public, unless otherwise by sign or notice by the land management agency. Public lands owned by the private landowner do not have public access. Permission is required from the private landowner to cross private land, unless access is provided by a Federal, State or County road, or a BLM road with legal access.
