

All Hazard Preparedness Training

Target audience: Individuals who have responded or are likely to respond to a major disaster incident.

Objectives: Increase awareness of the fundamental differences between fire and major disaster assignments with regards to organization, mission, tasks, authorities and jurisdictions.

Illustrate the kinds of conditions/assignments likely to be encountered on a major disaster assignment.

Describe the human factors associated with a major disaster assignment.

Provide practices and protocols to assist in maintaining emotional and physical health.

0900-0905	Welcome, Logistics, Agenda	Mike Spencer
0905-0915	Objectives of Session, Personal Message	Karyn Wood/Carl Gossard
0915-0945	Overview of National Response Plan	David Summer
945-1000	Break
1000-1200	Speaker Panel Presentation: Illustrate the kinds of conditions/assignments likely to be encountered on a major disaster assignment. Mike Lohrey, IC; Jacquelyn Oakes (HRSP); Shelly Hakanson (CISM); Karyn Wood/Carl Gossard (DIR/FMO); David Summer (SOFR)
1200-1300	Lunch
1300-1500	Responding to a Disaster Assignment: Critical Incident Stress Management	Vard Miller
1500-1515	Close Out	Karyn Wood/Carl Gossard