Christmas Tree Permit Season!

Roseburg, Ore. -- Christmas tree permits will be available from the Bureau of Land Management's Roseburg District Office from November 23 through December 24, 2015.

The cost for a single tree up to 12 feet high is $5.00. There is a limit of three trees per household. No commercial permits will be issued. The permit tag authorizes purchasers to cut their own tree(s) on a self-serve basis in either the Swiftwater or South River Resource Areas.

Permits and maps are available at the Roseburg BLM Office, located at 777 N.W. Garden Valley Blvd. Office hours are from 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Other locations are Myrtle Creek City Hall, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and the U.S. Forest Service Office in Glide (North Umpqua Ranger District) from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The BLM manages more than 245 million acres of public land, the most of any Federal agency. This land, known as the National System of Public Lands, is primarily located in 12 Western states, including Alaska. The BLM also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation. The BLM's mission is to manage and conserve the public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations under our mandate of multiple-use and sustained yield. In Fiscal Year 2014, the BLM generated $5.2 billion in receipts from public lands.
