Comment Period Extended For Wildwood Recreation Area

Salem, Ore.-- The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Salem District is extending the comment period on the Wildwood Recreation Area Management Plan through November 11, 2016. Accepting comments through the fall will allow the public to provide detailed comments to help develop proposals for camping and other activities at Wildwood Recreation Site.

The public is encouraged to submit comments to: BLM_OR_NO_Rec_publiccomments@blm.gov.

-BLM-

The BLM manages more than 245 million acres of public land, the most of any Federal agency. This land, known as the National System of Public Lands, is primarily located in 12 Western states, including Alaska. The BLM also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation. The BLM's mission is to sustain the health, diversity, and productivity of America's public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations. In Fiscal Year 2015, the BLM generated $4.1 billion in receipts from activities occurring on public lands.
