Celebrate Halloween at Yaquina Head

Newport, OR The Bureau of Land Management at Yaquina Head Outstanding Natural Area invites visitors to celebrate Halloween at the Interpretive Center. Continuing a 19th century tradition, the lighthouse keepers will dress in their wives' clothing and the wives will dress in the lighthouse keepers' uniforms. Children who tell a joke or riddle for the rangers will receive a treat.

The park entrance fee is $7.00/vehicle (3-Day Pass). Accepted passes include Yaquina Head Annual Pass, Oregon Pacific Coast Passport, and Federal Annual, Golden Age, Military, Access, Volunteer and Every Kid in a Park Passes.

The Interpretive Center will be open for trick-or-treating Halloween day from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Beginning, Sunday, November 1st, the Interpretive Center will be open 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. All other areas of the park will be open from 8:00 a.m. to dusk.

For more information about Yaquina Head Outstanding Natural Area contact the BLM at (541) 574-3100 between 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Additional information is available online at: <http://www.blm.gov/or/resources/recreation/yaquina>

BLM manages more than 245 million acres of public land, the most of any Federal agency. This land, known as the National System of Public Lands, is primarily located in 12 Western states, including Alaska. The BLM also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation. The BLM's mission is to manage and conserve the public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations under our mandate of multiple-use and sustained yield. In Fiscal Year 2014, the BLM generated $5.2 billion in receipts from public lands.
