B. Sample format for notice of forest management decision other than timber sales:

NOTICE OF FOREST MANAGEMENT DECISION - BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT - IMPLEMENTATION OF INTEGRATED PEST MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM), Eugene District, will implement an Integrated Pest Management (IPM) program at the Travis Tyrrell Seed Orchard in Lorane, Oregon (Lane County). The orchard produces seed and other vegetative materials that are used primarily for reforestation and a variety of other land management activities. The IPM program will manage insect, weed, animal, and disease problems at the orchard. This decision is consistent with the "Eugene District Record of Decision and Resource Management Plan" (RMP, June 1995) as amended. BLM has prepared an Environmental Impact Statement for this project and made it available to the public. The decision record is available on the internet at:

http://www.edo.or.blm.gov/planning/seed_orchard/pest_mgmt_eis.htm.

The decision to implement this forest management project may be protested under 43 CFR 5003 - Administrative Remedies. As outlined in 43 CFR 5003 (a) and (b), protests of a forest management decision may be made within 15 days of the publication date of the decision notice and shall contain a written statement of reasons for protesting the decision. In accordance with the regulations, this notice constitutes the decision document for the purpose of protests, which must be filed by close of business (4:15 p.m.) on January 4, 2006, with the District Manager at the Eugene District Office, 2890 Chad Drive, Eugene, Oregon, or by mail to P.O. Box 10226, Eugene, Oregon, 97440. As interpreted by BLM, the regulations do not authorize acceptance of the BLM of protests in any form other than a signed, paper document that is delivered to the physical address of the BLM office within the 15-day period. Therefore, email, verbal, or facsimile protests will not be accepted.
