

The National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center and Trail Tenders, Inc. are proud to sponsor

Mike Follin as Doctor Balthasar

Classes include:

- Customer Service Skills
- Basics of Communication
- First Person Interpretation
- Interpretive Techniques
- Interpretive Talks
- Third Person Interpretation
- And more.....

A FOUR DAY
INTERPRETIVE WORKSHOP

MARCH 30-APRIL 2, 2009
SUNRIDGE INN AND CONFERENCE CENTER,
BAKER CITY, OREGON

INTERPRETATION IS THE ART OF COMMUNICATION

A workshop for national and state park staff, museum staff and interpreters, living historians, historical site staff, volunteers and docents, teachers, educators, actors and anybody who would like to improve their communication skills.

Baker City, Oregon is conveniently located off of Interstate 84 in Eastern Oregon. Before or after the workshop take time to visit Baker City's Historic Downtown District with its registered historic buildings, art galleries, great restaurants, coffee houses, one of a kind shopping. Get a taste of the pioneer life at the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center and the Baker Heritage Museum. For more information, please visit www.visitbaker.com or call 1-800-523-1235.

For more information on cost, lodging and to reserve your space please contact:

The National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center

at

541-523-1843

please note! Registration closes March 23, 2009.