Folksinger Hank Cramer to perform at National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center

Baker City, Oregon- Popular northwest folk singer Hank Cramer will present his program “Wanderin’ Minstrel” August 6-10, 2010 at the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center.

Hank Cramer is a traveling folksinger who lives in Washington State. He is best known for his booming bass voice, accompanied by vintage flat-top guitar and a wry sense of humor. His repertoire is a mix of original, traditional, and contemporary folk songs. His songs tell the stories of pioneers, cowboys, sailors, soldiers, miners, adventurers, and drifters. That fits with Hank’s life story: he has been an underground miner, a professional soldier, shanty-man on a square-rigged ship, wrangler for a high country outfitter, and a world traveler. Those experiences make Hank’s music ring with a special authenticity. He is an avid historian and presents educational programs which weave together music, history, and cultural traditions.

Cramer’s performances run at 11:00 AM, 1:30 PM and 3:00 PM, Friday through Tuesday. More information about Cramer is available at www.hankcramer.com
