Program Descriptions:

Where the Buffalo (Bison) Roam: This 40 minute PowerPoint presentation looks at the quintessential American icon, how we brought the animal to the brink of extinction and where it stands today.

Geology, Climatology, & its Effects on Plant Communities: Accompany an Interpreter on a short 40 minute stroll around the grounds or sit back and relax in our Leo Adler Theater for an interpretive presentation on the geology of Oregon and its effects on climate and the corresponding plant communities.

All About Oxen: Take a look into the most prominent beast of burden on the Oregon Trail in a 30 minute PowerPoint presentation.

Auburn, Oregon Town of Promise: A 30 minute slide presentation on the pioneering gold camp town of Auburn in Baker County, which started the gold rush to Eastern Oregon in the 1860's and disappeared soon thereafter.

The History of Gold Mining in Eastern Oregon: Geologist Howard Brooks presents an insider's look at the rich history of gold mining in Eastern Oregon.

Preparing for the Trail: There were many decisions involved in making the choice to start a new life in Oregon. Explore some of the options, alternatives, and judgments the pioneers faced when deciding to trek west to Oregon.

Wagons Ho! Film Festival: Our annual spotlight on Hollywood films and real history focuses this year on the Oregon Trail theme. This year the long running television series Death Valley Days will be featured in the Leo Adler Theater. This series ran from 1952-1975 and will include interpretive commentary between each half hour episode. The entertainment will commence at 9:30 am with an introduction to Death Valley Days by Center interpreter Jim Collister and will conclude at approximately 2:30 pm.

In the Leo Adler Theater:

Special interest videos on historical subjects, regional interest topics, and natural history shown daily.

Outdoors:

Demonstrations on pioneer crafts and special interest hikes offered depending on weather and availability of interpreters. Check marquee in lobby for daily schedule.

In the Flagstaff Gallery:

Wildflowers of Eastern Oregon: Photographs by Doris King - Thru Nov. 18
