PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

Albert Fenner: “Supplier to the Compleat Miner” Living history interpreter David Jason portrays Albert Fenner, Mining Supplier, while providing insight into the life of a mid 19th century business man.

Equine or Bovine?: Interpreter Calvin Henshaw portrays a pioneer pondering the pros and cons of different draft animals. See how he made the choice of which animal to use to power his wagon across the country.

The Original Meals on Wheels: NHOTIC Interpreter Rachael Nickens presents a 30 minute program in the Leo Adler Theater exploring the methods by which Pioneers preserved, prepared, and partitioned food on the Oregon Trail.

Our Pioneer Ancestors Join NHOTIC Interpreter Cheri Garver in the Flagstaff Gallery for conversations about the Oregon Trail, stories about overland emigrants, and hints to help you discover your own genealogy.

“Probably George” Malvern: “The Varied and Startling Adventures of a Mountain Man”, true life experiences and tall tales in an adventurous 30 minute living history program by David Jason.

Women of the Oregon Trail: Join Interpreter Rachael Nickens for a 40 minute interpretive talk on the roles of women traveling the Oregon Trail.

Oregon Bounty Harvest Days: This celebration of the rich harvests of Oregon, from historic times to the present day, includes demonstrations of pioneer cooking and modern dutch-oven cooking. Sample both modern and heirloom varieties of regionally grown fruits and vegetables and find out how they came to Oregon. Displays of the natural bounty of eastern Oregon and early day food sources of the Native Americans.
