June 9, 2015
Salem District Office
Salem, Oregon

June 10, 2015
Roseburg Fairgrounds
Roseburg, Oregon

Workshop Purpose: To help members of the public understand the socio-economic analysis in the Draft Resource Management Plan/Environmental Impact Statement, and offer a forum for informed community dialogue and constructive comments.

AGENDA

3:45 Sign in

4:00 Introduction – BLM & Workshop Facilitator

4:10 Presentation: Socio-Economics Analysis – Stewart Allen, BLM Socio-Economics Specialist; Mark Buckley, EcoNorthwest; and Clive Graham, Eco-Resource Management

5:00 Presentation Q&A

**Note: The presenters will also be available to answer additional questions during the small group discussions.*

5:15 Break & Transition to Discussion Areas

Participants are invited to join smaller group discussions to ask the technical resource experts additional questions about the analysis and to dialogue about what outcomes they would like BLM to achieve through its RMP. Each discussion will be timed to 30 minutes, at which time participants may choose to move on to another discussion area or remain at the same discussion area.

In addition, a “Comments” table will be available to those who are ready to formulate specific comments to share with the BLM on their draft EIS/RMP.

Discussion Area Topics:

- Market and Non-Market Goods & Services, Payments to Counties
- Jobs, Economic Stability, Cost to BLM
- Community Capacity and Resiliency, Environmental Justice

7:00 Adjourn
