Comments:

Increasing Mountain biking trails in this area is not only good for cycling community. It will bring new revenues to the region in the form of cycling tourism, it will help us all advocate for safe, authorized trails and it raises the profile of Southern Oregon. By developing a joint venture with all interested parties it spreads the work/finance effort across all interested parties and makes for efficiency in developing any business case for funding and permissions.

Other regions have set the precedent for this type of joint land use, its time to have the Rogue Valley raise the bar
