WOPF is, in my opinion, an unconscionable strategy using forests to mediate a distressed economy, feed a weakened timber ~~and~~ industry, cut as much heritage forest as possible to produce lumber when home-building is at a tragic, family-wrecking collapse and to fight religious wars.

But, as to content: it is overwhelming to be studied in 90 days for substantial response that is disabled by conducting science meetings at the end of the comment period.

Where is responsibility to climate change, my grand children's future, etc.

I choose not to attempt comment on a 10 pound seven inch 3 volume work.
