

2334

RECEIVED
JAN 11 2008

January 10, 2008

To Whom It May Concern at BLM:

I am very concerned about the proposed Western Oregon Plan Revisions. The WOPR would increase old-growth logging on public lands and deplete our natural resource base for future generations. It puts water quality at risk and could contribute to global warming.

Please focus instead on restoration forestry that would benefit watersheds, provide jobs, and protect irreplaceable ancient forests. May we learn from our past mistakes.

Sincerely,

Mary Yount
PO Box 582
Ashland, OR 97520