

Hyatt Lake Recreation Area

Nestled among towering firs and pines in the northern corner of the Bureau of Land Management's Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument, Hyatt Lake Campground is situated at 5000 ft. elevation on Hyatt Lake. The Hyatt Lake Recreation Area offers the only developed camping within the Monument.

Directions

From Interstate 5, take Exit 14 in Ashland, Oregon. Turn on Highway 66 toward Klamath Falls. Follow Highway 66 for 17 miles until you reach the Green Springs Inn. Turn north onto the Bureau of Land Management's East Hyatt Lake Road. Follow the road for approximately 3 miles until you reach the Hyatt Lake Recreation Area; veer right towards the entrance station.

Camping

Hyatt Lake Campground

Hyatt Lake Campground has 54 campsites, ranging from small RV sites to drive-in and walk-in tent sites. Facilities include flush toilets, hot showers, a dump station, a fish-cleaning station, and 2 boat ramps with dock facilities. No electrical, water, or sewer hookups are available. Disabled access is limited. Loops A & B are by reservation, loop C is first-come first-serve.

Wildcat Campground

For a more primitive camping experience, Wildcat Campground has 12 campsites with hand-pumped water and vault restrooms. Sites are reservation only.

Horse Camp

Horse Camp has a vault restroom and 5 sites, each with corrals. An access trail from this area connects riders directly to the PCT. Equestrian and stock users are encouraged to feed certified weed-free feed 24 hours prior to arrival.

Mountain View Group Shelter

The Mountain View Group Shelter, overlooking Hyatt Lake, accommodates up to 150 people. It is equipped with an electric stove, running water, tables, and a large fireplace. Sites are reservation only.

Cascade Meadows Group Site

Cascade Meadows Group Site has capacity for up to 60 people, is equipped with a vault restroom, and accommodates RVs and tent camping. The campsite does not have electricity. Sites are reservation only.

Osprey Kitchen

Osprey Kitchen is a group camping and day-use area with a covered cooking area, grill, group fire ring, and walk-in tent sites. Accommodates up to 40 people. Sites are reservation only.
