

Eagleview

Eagleview is a reservation-only group campground. It can accommodate up to 120 campers and boasts the pavilion seen above. Eagleview is located on the grounds of the previous Camp Fire Girls facility, in operation for over 40 years. Reserve Eagleview for weddings, group outings, family reunions, or company celebrations. But book early, it's very popular. The campground is located one mile downstream from the Tye Recreation Site, along the banks of the main stem Umpqua River.

FACILITIES	10 campsites, 50 person pavilion, horseshoe pits, drinking water, vault restrooms, emergency phone, river access, group picnic/fire ring area. Overflow parking available. Max Group Size: 120 people
ACCESS for PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES	The pavilion, all campsites, and the restrooms are accessible.
FEES	$145 / night. $200 refundable (if conditions are met) deposit. Reservations through www.recreation.gov or Reserve America (877) 444 - 6777.
PETS	Pets in campgrounds must be physically restrained by owner on a six foot or shorter leash.
FIREWOOD	$6 / bucket; located by emergency phone
SEASON	Opens - May 13 Check in: 1:00 pm Closes - September 26 Check out: 11:00 am
LOCATION	From I-5 in Sutherlin, head west 12 miles on Highway 138. At Bullock Bridge, just past Tye Landing, turn left/south and then an immediate right onto County Road 57, campground is 3/4 mile downstream. Elevation: 210'
HOST	Host on-site to assist with firewood and general questions.

