

Liggett Table Herd Management Area

Prineville District

LOCATION: This HMA is approximately 50 miles southeast of Prineville, OR and about 10 miles southwest of Paulina, OR.

ACREAGE: Approximately 30,000 acres

ELEVATION/LANDMARKS: Elevation is mainly between 4000 feet and 4700 feet. The area is generally a high table land which lies between Camp Creek and the South Fork of the Crooked River. Two dominant landmarks include Twin Buttes and Sulfur Butte.

VEGETATION: Except for limited riparian areas, the vegetation is Juniper, Sagebrush and Bunchgrass.

WILD LIFE: Pronghorn antelope, mule deer, elk, coyotes. Golden and Bald Eagles, various hawks, mountain and California valley quail, and chukars.

HERD SIZE: Appropriate Management Level is 10-15 horses.

HORSE COLORS: This herd is predominately chestnut and sorrel.

SIZE OF HORSES: 900 to 1150 pounds, standing on average 15-15.2 hands tall.

GENERAL INFORMATION/HISTORY: This is a small, isolated herd which is descended from rodeo stock. They are of very uniform color and above average in conformation.