

NATIONAL CONSERVATION
LANDS

Happy Tails Dog Adventures

Happy Tails on the Trail

Doggos! Fetch your leash and join other puppers on an outing in the great outdoors. “Happy Tails” provides fun exercise while exploring in nature. Learn about doggo friendly trails in local National Monuments, the native flora and wildlife, and hike on, responsibly! Among the scenery of Santa Rosa and San Jacinto and Sand to Snow National Monuments, these guided walks are designed to promote canine ethics on Public Lands. Pack plenty of water for you and your K-9 friends on this fun outing.

Fall 2019 Schedule

All walks are on selected Wednesdays, 8:30 – 10 am

October 16, La Quinta Cove Trail

Meet at the Trails Parking Lot La Quinta Cove Calle Tecate at Ave Bermudas, La Quinta
Rated Easy, 200 feet elevation change, length, 2 miles

November 6, Gabby Hayes Trail

Meet at picnic tables, Cahuilla Hills Park
45825 Edgehill Dr, Palm Desert
Rated Moderate, trail includes some steep sections.

December 4, Whitewater Preserve and Pacific Crest Trail

Meet at picnic tables, Whitewater Preserve
9160 Whitewater Canyon Rd, Whitewater
Rated Easy, trail includes some rocky areas and river crossing.

La Quinta Cove

Whitewater Cyn

Free. Space is limited to 10 participants for each hike. RSVP required via Eventbrite by visiting DesertMountains.org

Call the Santa Rosa and San Jacinto Mountains National Monument Visitor Center, (760) 862-9984, for more details.

Happy Tails program is provided with Volunteer support from

Friends of the Desert Mountains