

It's Not Worth The View!

Wildland fire aircraft fly low and fast. Drones pose a serious threat to pilot's safety.

Drones can shut down air operations. Suspended operations put firefighters, residents, and property at risk.

Per the FAA, Drone operators who interfere with wildfire suppression efforts are subject to civil penalties of up to $27,500 and possible criminal prosecution.

