Kasha-Katuwe Tent Rocks
National Monument

Thank you for choosing Kasha-Katuwe Tent Rocks National Monument (the Monument) as your center for geological, biological, and cultural education. The Monument is managed by the Bureau of Land Management in close cooperation with the Pueblo de Cochiti. Together, we strive to provide an extraordinary experience to our guests each and every day.

The Monument offers free Educational Permits to schools and accredited learning institutions who meet specific criteria. To see if you meet the criteria and to request a free Educational Permit, we recommend that your application be submitted at least two weeks prior to your scheduled visit. Educational Permits are limited and issued on a first come first serve basis. Please provide your field trip information on page 3 of this document.

Field Trip Guidelines:

Student/Chaperone ratios: The BLM recommends that the State of New Mexico student to teacher ratio guidelines of 10 students per one adult. For groups larger than 72 total visitors, it is preferable to either schedule two separate visits, or stagger groups between the Slot Canyon and Cave Loop trails. This is intended to limit congestion caused by groups entering the slot canyon simultaneously.

Vehicles: Each educational pass can allow up to 6 total vehicles (busses and private vehicles combined). Every vehicle thereafter will be charged according to the Monuments current fee schedule. School groups not having a current permit will be required to either acquire a permit at the fee booth and certify school and/or accreditation status, OR pay the fee according to the current fee schedule, or pay $2.00 per person (16 and older) or whichever is less.

Educational Permits are only issued to accredited institutions whose purpose is to provide a quality educational experience. Therefore, a lesson plan must be provided with this application prior to receiving an Educational Permit.

Junior Ranger Guide Books and EKIP Passes:

A Junior Explorer Guide is available for your students. These guides provide fun facts and activities for students to enjoy on the trail or at home. These are available by request and are in limited supply. They can be picked up upon arrival at the Monument or downloaded from our website.

Every Kid in the Park (EKIP) initiative provides free access to federal lands and waters to all 4th graders and three guests. There are two easy ways to get these passes. The Monument can use the information you provided in this application and have your passes ready for your students upon arrival at the Monument, or educators are encouraged to go to <https://www.everykidinapark.gov/> and request printable vouchers (up to 50) redeemable for EKIP passes. Signing up is easy and only takes less than 5 minutes to print vouchers for all your students at once. Each student will be able to go home from this trip with their EKIP pass which is good at all Federal Lands for up to one year.
