Kokopelli's Trail

Kokopelli's Trail is a network of trails in the Four Corners area of the United States. It is maintained by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and the National Park Service (NPS). The trail is open to hikers, mountain bikers, and equestrians.

The trail is located in the western part of the state of Utah, near the city of Moab.

Kokopelli's Trail is approximately 70 miles long and is divided into several segments. It is a popular trail for hikers and mountain bikers due to its beautiful scenery and challenging terrain.

Be prepared in case of emergency.

Any time you are on a trail, especially alone, you must be prepared for the possibility of an emergency.

Be aware of weather.

Even when the sun is shining on the trail, there can be sudden changes in the weather. If you are on a trail on a cloudy day, you should always be prepared for sudden changes in the weather.

Be prepared in case of emergency.

It is always a good idea to carry a first-aid kit, a map and compass, and a whistle in case of an emergency.

Be aware of weather.

Always check the weather forecast before you go on a hike or a bike ride. It is always a good idea to carry a first-aid kit, a map and compass, and a whistle in case of an emergency.

Be prepared in case of emergency.

It is always a good idea to carry a first-aid kit, a map and compass, and a whistle in case of an emergency.

Be aware of weather.

Always check the weather forecast before you go on a hike or a bike ride. It is always a good idea to carry a first-aid kit, a map and compass, and a whistle in case of an emergency.

Be prepared in case of emergency.

It is always a good idea to carry a first-aid kit, a map and compass, and a whistle in case of an emergency.

Be aware of weather.

Always check the weather forecast before you go on a hike or a bike ride. It is always a good idea to carry a first-aid kit, a map and compass, and a whistle in case of an emergency.