

SPECIAL RECREATION PERMITS

Have an outdoor event idea? The BLM likely has a permit for that!

Public lands offer a variety of options for commercial and competitive recreation activities. Applying for a Special Recreation Permit (SRP) takes time and effort. To have the best chance of success, learn how the process works. Plan ahead and have all the required documentation and information ready to go.

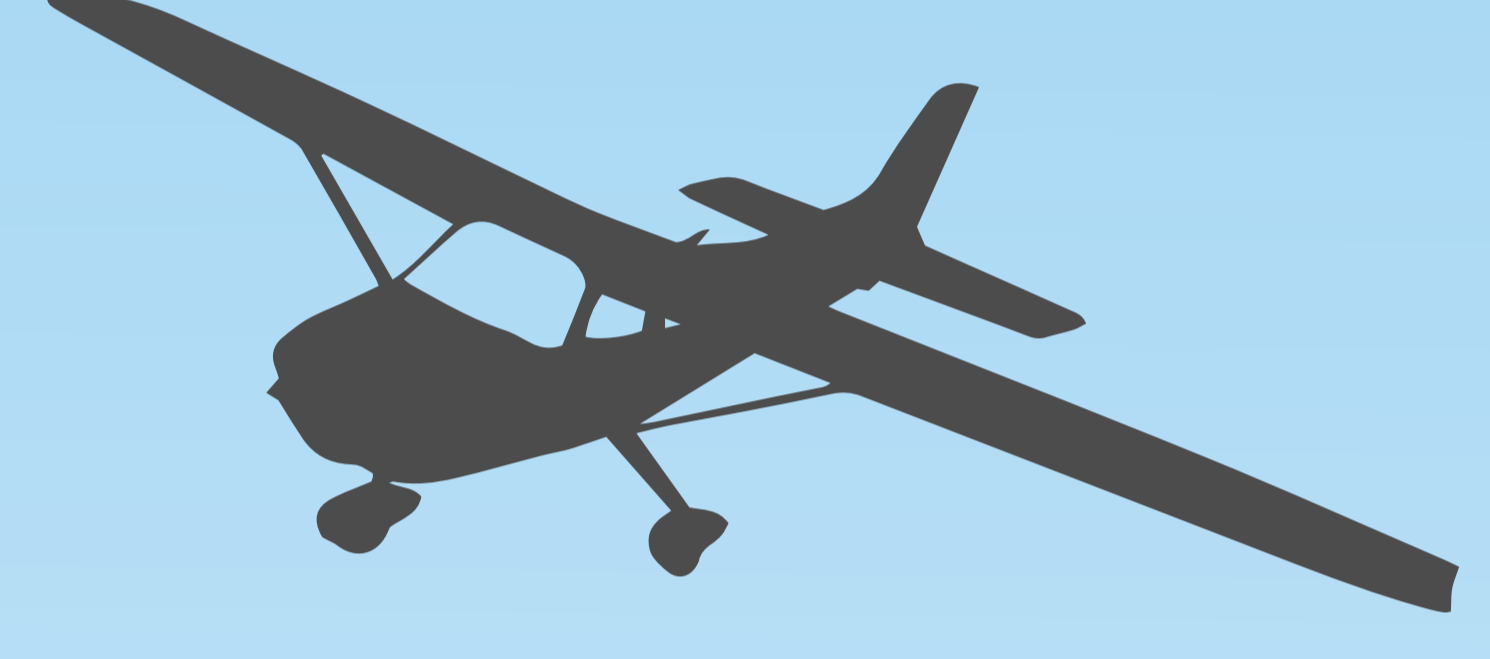

COMMERCIAL GUIDING & TOURING BLM PERMITS

- River & Fishing Guides
- Hunting Guides
- Heli-skiing Guides
- Hiking Guides
- Auto Tours
- ATV Tours
- Dog Sledding Tours
- Bike Tours

MAJOR COMPETITIVE EVENTS BLM PERMITS

BLM Alaska permits motorized and non-motorized races, large and small, statewide.

- Sled Dog Races
- Off-highway Vehicle Races
- Bike Races
- Foot Races
- Ski Races

APPLYING FOR A SPECIAL RECREATION PERMIT

BLM staff will work with every applicant to evaluate proposals and the potential for authorization. For the best chance of success, come ready with a plan and supporting documents.

1 CONTACT US

Our field office outdoor recreation specialists will guide you through all the required documentation.

2 APPLY FOR PERMIT

Submit an SRP application. The application must be received a minimum of 180 days prior to your proposed event.

3 PLAN REVIEW

SRP applications must conform to the Resource Management Plan of that area.

4 AUTHORIZATION

Once approved, minimum fees and any additional processing fees are paid and an SRP is authorized.