NOTE TO MAP USERS

The surface and mineral management status overlays are published as general planning and management tools. Some of the lands, surface and mineral rights, may have been transferred to the public since the last update. The official land status is determined by the Bureau of Land Management or other responsible Federal agencies. Users should be checked for up-to-date status on any specific land of interest. The Bureau of Land Management is responsible for the respective Bureau of Land Management office from which the maps were obtained.

PUBLIC ACCESS

Roads crossing public lands may be traveled by the public unless closed by signs or posted by the land management agency. Public lands (owned by the State, County, or a BLM road with legal access).
