Every Kid in the Park
Idaho Parks, Destinations and Campgrounds

Idaho has recreational trails and sites in beautiful state parks and public lands that span lake shores, rivers, dramatic mountainides, serene forests, wilderness areas and national parks as well as grizzly montains. There is something for everyone, whether you crave high adventure, a relaxing vacation, educational programs, family fun or if you’re a history buff. The fun continues year round with cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, and other seasonal events. Campsites, cabins and parking are available at many parks too, so settle in and explore to your heart’s content. Grab this map, pick a destination and go!
