SAFETY

Stay on designated routes. Desert plants provide homes and food for wildlife but are easily destroyed if walked on or run over by a vehicle.

Pack out all trash. Even orange peels and other natural items decompose slowly in the high desert climate.

Respect wildlife. Do not feed or approach wild animals. Observe them from a distance. Secure food out of their reach.

Be careful with fire. Keep campfires small. Comply with fire restrictions.

Expect wild, rugged conditions and extreme temperatures. Prepare for your trip by learning about ways to stay safe in the back country. This brochure provides only limited safety information.

If you arrive unprepared, you could become lost, dehydrated, injured, or even die. Your safety is your responsibility.

A FEW RECOMMENDED SAFETY TIPS

Carry plenty of water—a minimum of 1 gallon per person, per day.

Tell someone where you are going and when you plan on returning.

If you are stranded, stay with your vehicle.

Dress appropriately for the season and changing weather.

Do not approach or feed wildlife.
