The Federal Subsistence Management Program is a multi-agency effort to provide the opportunity for a subsistence way of life by rural Alaskans on Federal public lands and waters while maintaining healthy populations of fish and wildlife. Federal subsistence regulations apply only to Federal public lands and do not apply to private and state lands.

Rural Resident? Know if and where you can participate in Federal subsistence hunts. https://www.doi.gov/subsistence

All Forty Mile and White Mountains Caribou hunts are subject to openings and closings on short notice. Call the ADF&G Forty Mile hotline at (907) 267-2210 for more information before departing for the field.