WELCOME TO SUTTON MOUNTAIN SCENIC BYWAY!

Welcome to 41 miles of Central Oregon's scenic backcountry! Relish views of the orange and red clay mounds of the Painted Hills, crane your neck to catch the emerald-green lichen on the rock walls of Girds Creek Canyon, and get up close and personal with the high desert cliffs of Sutton Mountain. You can stick to the byway or explore colorful hiking trails, discover historic corrals from early ranching days, pause for a lunch break at Priest Hole on the banks of the John Day River, or camp under breathtaking, unobstructed night skies. Anywhere you look, it's a photographer's dream!

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- ✓ AMENITIES NEARBY include picnicking, restrooms, and drinking water available at the Painted Hills National Monument (water not available during winter months).
- ✓ PETS ARE ALLOWED.
- ✓ FUEL, FOOD, AND LODGING are available in Mitchell.
- ✓ PRIMITIVE CAMPING is available at the BLM Priest Hole Recreation Site reached via a 1.4 mile spur road off of the north side of the byway loop. Priest Hole has no restroom and no water.

DIRECTIONS

The Sutton Mountain Backcountry Byway is a 41-mile scenic loop that can be traveled in either direction. From State Hwy 26 about 3 miles west of Mitchell, Oregon, head north on Bridge Creek Road past the Painted Hills for about 9 miles. Continue to the right toward Priest Hole on the Twickenham/Bridge Creek Cutoff Road and follow that for about 15 miles. Head south on Hwy 207 until you bump into Hwy 26, about ½ mile west of Mitchell.
