Cultural Artifacts

Cultural materials on public lands may not be removed, damaged, disturbed, excavated or sold. Permits are required for pieces over 25 pounds. Permits are required for pieces over 250 pounds. Petrified wood may not be traded, bartered or sold.

Collection or harvest of game and nongame animals, including fish, is regulated by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Nevada Division of Wildlife and BLM offices. A valid state or federal fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons.

Wood, Plants and Pine Nuts

Various species of trees are available for firewood with a permit. Pine nuts in amounts up to 25 pounds per person per year may be collected for non-commercial purposes. Collection or harvest of game and nongame animals, including fish, is regulated by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Nevada Division of Wildlife and BLM offices. A valid state or federal fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons.

Wood, Plants and Pine Nuts

Various species of trees are available for firewood with a permit. Pine nuts in amounts up to 25 pounds per person per year may be collected for non-commercial purposes. Collection or harvest of game and nongame animals, including fish, is regulated by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Nevada Division of Wildlife and BLM offices. A valid state or federal fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons.

Cultural Artifacts

Cultural materials on public lands may not be removed, damaged, disturbed, excavated or sold. Permits are required for pieces over 25 pounds. Permits are required for pieces over 250 pounds. Petrified wood may not be traded, bartered or sold.

Collection or harvest of game and nongame animals, including fish, is regulated by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Nevada Division of Wildlife and BLM offices. A valid state or federal fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons. Lists of protected species are available from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service or state of Nevada. Lahontan cutthroat trout may be taken with a Nevada fishing license in permitted areas and seasons.