WELCOME TO WILDWOOD RECREATION SITE!

Welcome to BLM's Wildwood Recreation Site! Nestled at the base of Mount Hood, the Salmon Wild and Scenic River flows through Wildwood in the heart of one of Oregon's most iconic regions. This 560-acre forested park features the innovative Cascade Streamwatch and Wetland Boardwalk interpretive trails. Wildwood also provides outstanding facilities for day-use recreation such as covered shelters, outdoor kitchens, scenic picnic sites, ball fields and a playground. The park is ideal for large groups and those looking to learn more about the fascinating watersheds of the Cascade Range.
