WELCOME TO YAQUINA HEAD OUTSTANDING NATURAL AREA

Tidepool life, nature's music and Oregon's tallest lighthouse can all be enjoyed at Yaquina Head. The 100-acre site also includes an interpretive center, wildlife viewing, short trails and incredible views.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- ✓ HOURS: Yaquina Head is open year-round; times vary by season.
- ✓ LIGHTHOUSE: Open only for ranger-led tours as staffing and weather permit.
- ✓ FEES: Passenger vehicles $7; buses $25/$50 depending on capacity. "National Park and Federal Recreation Lands" and "Oregon Pacific Coast" passes are accepted and available.
- ✓ INTERPRETIVE CENTER: Open 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
- ✓ TIDEPOOLS AT COBBLE BEACH: View sea stars, anemones, urchins and more! Be sure to check a local tide table for the best time to view tidepool creatures.

DIRECTIONS

3.5 miles north of Newport, off Hwy 101 on the central Oregon Coast.

KEEP YAQUINA HEAD SAFE AND SCENIC

- ✓ Cliffs and unstable areas abound. Walk on maintained paths and remain behind fences and other barriers.
- ✓ Waves and surf are unpredictable. Always keep an eye on the surf; keep small children within arm's reach.
- ✓ Seals live here; stay 50 yards away and use soft voices.
- ✓ Keep pets on a 6-foot leash and clean up waste. Pets are not permitted near lighthouse, in buildings or in tidepool area.
- ✓ Leave rocks, shells, flowers, sea life and other natural objects in place.
- ✓ Kites, model airplanes and drones are not permitted.
