

U.S. Department of the Interior
Bureau of Land Management

Cotoni-Coast Dairies Planning

Public Workshop Agenda — Central Coast Field Office, California

LOUDEN NELSON

December 4, 2018 | 5:00-7:00p
Louden Nelson Community Center,
Multipurpose Room
301 Center Street, Santa Cruz

BONNY DOON

December 13, 2018 | 5:00-7:00p
Bonny Doon Elementary School,
Auditorium
1492 Pine Flat Road, Santa Cruz

Note: The content and activities will be the same at both workshops

Workshop Goals

1. Introduce the Bureau of Land Management
2. Outline the planning process
3. Explore potential access points for Cotoni-Coast Dairies

Agenda

5:00 Welcome and Introductions

5:10 Meeting Goals and Agenda Review

5:15 Introduction to the BLM and Project Planning

- BLM Commitment to Working with Stakeholders and Communities
- Cotoni-Coast Dairies Resource Management Plan Development
- Process Road Map: Where are we headed, Where are we now, and How to contribute

5:35 Understanding Proclamation and What the BLM has Learned to Date

5:45 Presentation on Potential Access Points

6:00 Feedback and Discussion on Potential Access Points

- What criteria would you like the BLM to consider when thinking about access?
- What are your thoughts about the potential access points? Why?

6:50 Wrap Up: High Level Summary and Next Steps to Formal Planning Process

Questions about the December Workshops?

Please contact Mike Powers at the BLM Central Coast Field Office at BLM_CA_Web_CC@blm.gov or 831-582-2200.